

DRESS CODE

The following is a list of clothing that has been determined to be inappropriate for school wear. This is not a complete list, so if you are in doubt, don't wear it to school. The local school reserves the right to make judgment in individual cases.

- Clothing or ornamentation displaying or advertising substances illegal for minors
- Clothing or ornamentation displaying suggestive phrases, designs, markings, or profanities
- Clothing that exposes underwear or could otherwise be considered immodest
- Shorts and skirts more than three (3) inches above the knee; even if worn with tights or leggings
- Midriff shirts or blouses
- See-through garments without proper undergarments
- Sundresses without straps or a jacket, sleeveless or low-cut tops and dresses
- Halter tops or spaghetti-strap tops
- Tank tops
- Jeans/trousers, etc. with holes in them or that are torn or ripped and not hemmed
- No jeans with holes
- Pajama pants and slippers
- Spandex material without over-garments of an appropriate length
- Baggy pants worn below the waistline such that they may be pulled to the floor or run the risk of exposing undergarments
- Head scarves/bandanas

All shirts and tops must cover the midriff while sitting and standing. No underwear may be exposed. Shoes must be worn at all times.

Caps and hats are not to be worn during the school day unless there is a special activity during which they are deemed appropriate by the administration. This applies to girls and boys alike.
